Decrease in legal lenders. . . The gold market was excited at the opening by e non-appearance of the advertisement for a sale elligence in the V.ERALD correspondence from Cormany intimating a possible tax on United States securities in that country. The price under this in-Science advanced to 14014; but upon the appearance of the advertisement, as well as the withdrawal of the efforts which counterbalanced the inherent weakness of the market, there was a drop to 139%, especially as the official notice from Mr. Van Dyck went so far as to say famethe sales would be continued every Monday and Thursday in future until other-wise ordered. A Washington special says that another large delegation is now in Washington endeavoring to induce the President to intercede with Mr. Boutwell for a change in his policy of gold sales and bond purchases. If such a party have gone from this city ney do not really represent its mercantile interests, ut are operating in the interests of one or other of the gold gambling cliques who were injured by the fall in gold, and would like to see the price back to 145 or 150, if only to let them out of the trap in which bey were snared when Secretary Boutwell so antly increased his sales of government gold. course of the market is shown in the table:-10 A. Governments were quiet and steady, if not strong, during banking hours, but the market was inclined to settle late in the afternoon, and prices closed a shade lower. The general features of the money market were out change. Seven per cent continued to be the evailing rate on call loans, with pledge of miscelguritles. The city banks, as well as the country nks, have been very free buyers of commercial aper during the week, exercising unusual scrutiny. rime double names were discounted at seven to ht per cent, but a great deal of "good" paper was en at nine and ten. The dispute as to the conversion of stock of the Merchants' Union and the American Express Companies was under consideration at a meeting of the directers of the Consolidated American Merchants' Union Company, and a resolution adopted that on the 30th day of June next the books of the company will be closed against further conversions of the stock of the Merchants' Union Express Company into the stock of the consolidated company, and will abcreafter be opened only in favor of those share-holders in the Merchanis' Union Express Company who on or before that day give notice in writing to he secretary of the company of their intention and wish to make such conversion of their stock, and hall within the same time deposit their certificates of stock, with the sums due from them respectively, upon such call; such deposit to be returned unless the conversion shall be actually and lawfully made.

The stock market opened with considerable animation, Michigan Southern selling at 114%—an advance of one per cent as compared with the price at the close of business the previous day. From this point there was a yielding to 112%, based upon apprehensions for the result of an application which was made yesterday before Judge Clerke for a temporary injunction, restraining the company from disposing of its properly or franchises. It is the expectation that in the consolidation with Lake Shore, thich is preliminary to consolidation with New Sorrectified as high as twenty-five per cent, to equalize the propertions of stock as well as to represent the peris assets on hand at the time of thios. The application was made by John S. Prouty and others, who claim to be holders of the guaranteed or construction stock is the Michigan southern and Northern Indiana Hailroad Company, to the amount of some millions, for a temporary Injunction restraining the directors and Le Grand Lockwood, the Treasurer, from selling or in any manner disposing of the property, franchises or security of this company, until the plaintiffs shall be paid all arrearages of interest on their shares. The complaint and affidavits set forth the history of the company as now formed by the union of the Sorthern Indiana, the Chicago and Southern Michigan roads with their sub-divisions, and stated that the plaintiffs were holders of construction stock on which ten per cent interest, payable semi-anpually, was guaranteed. Owing to a lock of pro-Nork Coural, there will be a large scrip dividend, perity no interest was prod for a long time, so that an arrearage of eight 37 d a half years is said to have accrued. Now, however, the company is able to pay not only ten per cent on the guaranteed stock, but also a dividence on the ordinary stock; and this suit is brought of, the ground that all arrears of interest on the gus canteed stock must be paid before a cividend is Geclared on any other class of stock. The mark's settled under this intelligence, and operators were inclined to fear a repetition of the logislation of lamous in the course of New York Central and Eric. There was a recovery for some of the list and prices were better at the second call, but the hesitation and heaviness of the forenoon clung to some and permitted but a sight advance in them in the pearance of the bank statement and upon the rise in Michigan Southern to 115%. Pa-cific Mail dropped from 82% to 80% upon the announcement that the report next Monday will be unfavorable, but reacted to 81 at the close. New York Central, in being displaced by Michigan Southern as the leader of the railways, fell from 1904 to 189% and closed heavy. Hudson River, Harlem and Fort Wayne were more steady to-day, if not firmer. In the interval after the bank statement St. Paul and Reading were prominently strong, while the Northwestern shares reacted from the decline of midday. Pursuant to the rule of the Stock Ex-change the Chicago and Northwestern Raliroad Company gave notice this morning that fifteen thouthe company at the expiration of thirty days.

This stock is issued to replace bonds which have been paid off and cancelled by the company, and to pay for the new equipment has been placed on the road diring the past six months. This stock was taken by the directors, buyer thirty days, at par ex the June dividend, which is equal to 105. Lake Shore was closely sympathetic with Michigan Southern and followed it by an interval of one-half to one per cent. The express stocks were weak and lower. In the miscellaneous list Western Union, Mariposa, Cumberland, Canton and Quicksliver were declined and heavy.
